EAST METALWORKING CLUSTER

East Metalworking Cluster is a group of almost 90 enterprises from metal industry, operating in East Poland. The coordinator of the cluster is the Regional Club of Technology and Rationalization in Lublin – association improving the competitiveness of the regional economy. Companies operating in the cluster provide such services as: sheet cutting, sheet bending, steel hardening, welding, machining: turning, drilling, milling, grinding, locksmiths, heat treatment, corrosion protection, machinery repairs of food and chemical industry, regeneration of engine blocks, plastic processing, quality tests. Companies also off er such products as: locks, padlocks, door accessories, pavilions, fences, heat exchangers, steel tanks, tooling and machine-tools, brackets for LED/LCD, videowalls and videostands, screens enclosures and kiosks, steel constructions, design and construction of halls, bulk mill products, small metal parts for mining, diamond point tools, oxide cutting tools, boilers.

Produkty i usługi: Innovation support, b2b cooperation.

Strona internetowa: http://www.wschodniklaster.pl [1]

Branża: Produkcja i przetwórstwo metali

Kraj: Polska

Miejscowość: ul. Szewska 4, 20-086 Lublin

+48 81 532 13 39
kontakt@wschodniklaster.pl
Mr. Stanisław Janowczyk
Chairman Of The Board
Mrs. Beata Rymarczyk
Director
+48 517 837 089

□□□□: http://91.239.90.98/zh-hans/firma/east-metalworking-cluster